TEMPE LODGE NO. 26 - ARIZONA

The Tempe Lodge #26 has been very busy this holiday season. I wanted to update the Grand Lodge and the Supreme Lodge on what we have given monetarily to the community this year. This was made possible by renting out our lodge just from June through December due to Covid. We were able to give seven $1,000.00 checks to the following organizations:

1. The ARIS Foundation that feeds and clothes the homeless in Tempe. In the photo are members Joe Emery and Phil Amorosi with the founder of ARIS, Katherine Kouvelas-Edick.

2. The ARC of Tempe which helps the developmentally disabled socialize and creates events for them.

3. The Boys and Girls Club Thunderbird Branch of Guadalupe which serves predominantly Hispanic youth.

4. The Boys and Girls Club Diamondbacks Branch of South Phoenix which serves predominantly African American youth. We added them this year because one of our members “Pops” Belten, who passed away from Covid, used to go there when he was younger.

(left to right) Kevin Brown, Joe Emery, B & G branch manager Dave Deshler and Phil Amorosi.

5. Disabled American Veterans, Phoenix

6. Tempe Center for Habilitation which trains the developmentally disabled with job and life skills.

7. Tempe Community Action Agency which is Tempe's social services agency for all citizens of Tempe.

This doesn't include the hours we have volunteered to the community or the times we let students, neighborhoods and non-profits use our lodge for free.

At a Majestic Rank NY Pythians Initiate 21 NEW Knights

December 15, 2021

Majestic Lodge #109 proudly hosted the initiation of 21 new Knights, including two more women, Wednesday, December 15, 2021, at Ancient Order of Hibernian Hall in Gerritsen Beach, Brooklyn. At this rank, the Order initiated two Pythian Sisters – Susan Master (Genesis Lodge #64) and Past Supreme Representative Susan Grill (Ramapo Lodge #485) – who were the first women to join lodges in New York.

The special evening was coordinated by a ritual under direction of Past Deputy Supreme Chancellor Sir Roger Siegel, included Deputy Supreme Chancellor Sir Robert Ross, Supreme Representative Jordan Levy, PCDGC Sir Barry Wiener, PDGC Craig Kligfeld, PDGC Lonny Feierman, PACDGC Alex Needelman, Steven Needelman, PACDGC Herb Smith, PACDGC Lewis Smith, PACDGC Joel West and ACDGC Robert Wrana. Supreme Outer Guard Craig Shink represented Supreme Lodge. Six members represented New York's Grand Council: Grand Chancellor Harvey Rosenshein, Grand Secretary Steven Gold, Grand Master at Arms Errol Lewis, Grand Inner Guard Bryan Hoffman, Grand Outer Guard Brian Klasewitz and Past Grand Chancellor Randy Silverman.

“I am thrilled and honored to continue the legacy of Pythianism of my parents, Helene and Marvin Master, and so proud to be a part of the historic step the Knights of Pythias has taken to engage in a bright future,” stated new Knight Susan B. Master, Esq. “The Knights of Pythias has been a part of the fabric of my family's life, as my father joined the lodge when I was a teenager and my mother and I joined the Pythian Sisters soon thereafter. I jumped at the first opportunity I had to take the ranks as a Knight and to take my place in my family's tradition. I hope to honor my parents' memory by solidifying my connection to my extended Pythian family.”

“It is indeed an honor and a privilege to finally be a Pythian Brother,” stated new Knight Susan Grill. “I understand much of the work after being a Pythian Sister for forty years and do a lot of work in many of the Knights’ committees with a voice and no vote. Now I can earn that vote and work harder on other committees if chosen to serve. It was a wonderful evening going through the three ranks and learning what the Knights of Pythias is truly about. I look forward to working with the Brothers from Ramapo Lodge #485, now being officially able to serve as their Assistant Editor in Chief of the Gavel along with my husband [Past Deputy Supreme Chancellor] Erwin [Grill].”
